

FUN EXPERIENCE:

Our themed race night DVD's are great fun and easy to use. They are ideal for fundraising or simply as fun entertainment. The 'runners' in each race are specially designed animated snails. Each race has its own unexpected outcome - to keep the crowds cheering the snails on right to the very end. Rest assured – everyone will walk away with a smile on their face!

EASY TO RUN:

Our race nights are very easy to use. The races come on the one DVD and are designed to be run uninterrupted. Simply break the security seal – place it in your DVD player or computer and press play.

Our animated talking turtle "Terry" then takes over – explaining at the beginning of the DVD how the race night will work and then guiding your audience through each race. Before each race Terry will run through the line up – making funny comments about each snail along with their photo, sponsor, age, weight and sliminess being shown on the screen.

Once the race has finished – the results along with the winning ticket is shown on screen which is the signal for all the lucky winning ticket holders to collect their money !

FUND RAISING:

Our snail racing packs are designed to maximise the amount of fundraising you can achieve for your worthy cause. Our suggestions are:

- Collect sponsorship money from local businesses or individuals allowing them to choose a snails name and/or a race name.
- You can promote your event with a Fun Nights Inc Snail Racing Poster (available online) or pub bar staff can wear our specially designed snail racing T shirts.
- On the night you have a range of options including charging an admission fee on the door, selling the race programs, auctioning of the snails in say the last race and finally running a 'lucky dip' with sets of dual forecast tickets for at least one of the races.
- Finally don't forget to keep your audience happy by providing a buffet (which could be part of the admission fee) along with the sale of drinks.

ACTION PACKED RACING:

Before each race – there is a wave from the race favourite before the blast of the hooter sends them on their way. They then race over different obstacles – along with having to deal with attempts to stop them from winning. The races are designed to keep everyone cheering for their snail right down to the very end.

Sadly some of the snails never reach the finishing line – but rest assured they are well taken care of by our emergency response crew !!

NB: The pricing and payouts to the winners are entirely your decision

As a guide we suggest a 'race name' sponsorship fee of £20 to £50 per race and a 'snail sponsorship' fee of £5 per snail. With the tote we suggest a ticket price of £1 per ticket. You can use our tabulator forms to easily calculate a proportion, say 50% - 60% of the total takings for each race, to pay out to the winning ticket holders. Likewise with the auction - we suggest you offer the winning snail owner around half of the total amount collected.

EVERYTHING YOU NEED:

Our race packs offer tremendous value for raising funds for schools, sports clubs, charities etc as well as being great fun for pubs, private parties, weddings, corporate events and team building exercises. All of the races, tickets and race programs are personalised with your chosen race names, your venue name, the date of your event and your worthy cause. You can also have your own snail names and sponsors included at an additional cost.

To arrange your event all you need is a confirmed date, make up some funny snail names, sort out some sponsors - and then just sign up and place your order from within the members area of our website – www.funnightsinc.co.uk .

To help you get organised – we have both a sponsorship collection form and a snail race card summary sheet. You can print copies from our website – then hand the form to colleagues to help with raising funds while using the race card summary sheet to finalise your snail names. .

Our standard snail themed race packs contain the following:

- Easy to understand guidance notes to get you up and running
- One fully personalised DVD with your choice of 4,6 or 8 snail races
- Personalised tote tickets (320 per race, enough for up to 150 people)
- Ten full coloured printed race cards for placement on the tables
- Eight tote ID numbers to help the tote staff with the sale of the tickets
- A tote tabulator form for each race to help you work out the winning payouts
- An auction summary sheet to record the highest bids for each snail
- A funds-raised sheet to help summarise how much the event has raised

We are here to help – so if you have any questions or need advice simply email or use our online contact form. Your pack will generally be dispatched within one week of us receiving your final order.

So don't delay place your order today !
